Pennsylvania Code of Conduct And Behavioral Expectations

Members participating in or attending club, county, regional, district, state, and national programs, activities, events, shows, and contests sponsored for youth by the Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc. are required to conduct themselves according to the Pennsylvania Member Code of Conduct and Behavioral Expectations. The code and expectations operate in conjunction with the rules and regulations of the specific activity.

Volunteer Leaders attending or participating in the above-mentioned activities are expected to conduct themselves according to the Pennsylvania Volunteer Code of Conduct and Behavioral Expectations and to assist and support youth in their efforts to adhere to the Pennsylvania Member Code of Conduct and Behavioral Expectations.

Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc. Dress Guidelines

Knowing what to wear at events is sometimes a challenge. The dress code at County events such as club meetings, picnics, dinners, banquets, field trips, shows, activities during the shows, etc. Members not wearing appropriate dress will be required to change.

Casual: Jeans, khakis, t-shirts, walking shorts (figure tip length or longer) are appropriate. This is what you would wear to club meetings or picnics. Not appropriate casual clothing: cut-offs; badly worn jeans; t-shirts depicting drug, alcohol or sexually oriented slogans; tube tops; tank tops with straps smaller than 2 inches; and strapless or backless shirts, & no oversize, sagging pants.

Professional Casual: For guys- Slacks or khakis, polo shirts, collared shirts (ties not required). For ladies- Skirts (fingertip length or longer) or dress slacks including khakis with blouse or sweater; or dresses (at least fingertip length, not strapless or backless). Professional casual clothing maybe appropriate for club banquets, dinners.

Dress-up: For Gentlemen – Dress slacks with collared shirt and tie, jacket or sweater (no jeans). For Ladies – Dresses (at least fingertip length, not strapless or backless), suits or pantsuits.

At All Times: No undergarments may be exposed or prone to exposure. No midriff areas may be exposed or prone to exposure. Pajamas, loungewear, or other sleep wear should not be worn in public areas.

Dress Code for Shows and Sale:

Market Show: Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc T-Shirts, No hats or cell phones

Showmanship Show: Button Down short or long sleeve dress shirt, No hats or cell phones

Sale: Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc. Polo Shirts

Shirts are to be tucked into jeans or khaki pants. Pants are to be neat and have no holes or tears in them.

Beaver County Livestock Program Rules

1. Club members must be enrolled in a livestock project, attend the October organizational meeting, and commit themselves to the type and number of projects at this meeting. Changes made after the October meeting must be brought to the Board of Directors for approval. These rules will be reviewed and/or amended annually (by majority vote) of the membership of the BCSCI and the BCSCI Board of Directors. Changes to these rules must be read or reviewed at a mandatory Parent\Kids meeting of the BCSCI. Then they may be voted on by the membership for either approval or disapproval.
2. Club rules state that a club member must be seven (7) years of age before January 1 of the current year but must not have passed his or her 21st birthday by January 1 of the current year.
3. Members must attend at least 50% (5 of 9 meetings) of the regular livestock club meetings to be eligible to show and sell their projects. Members must be present for 75% of the meetings to be credited for attendance at that meeting. Excuses for absence must be approved by the Board of BCSCI.
4. Projects accepted for show and sale may be limited to space available at the show.
5. Projects must be on feed, weighed, and properly identified (tagged) by the species weigh-in date. Animals must be housed where they can receive daily care by the member to be eligible to be shown and sold at the show.
6. A responsible person must accompany member(s) project(s) to all weigh-ins. This person or the member will complete Weigh-In slips in triplicate. If project is housed at a different location other than the members address it must be noted on the weigh-in form. Once completed and the animal is weighed and tagged, the member and his/her family will have ten(10) days from the date of weigh-in to make any corrections on the weigh-in entry form.
7. All male animals must be castrated except for Poultry. Female hogs, lambs, poultry and goats will be accepted as market projects in the Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc. It is strongly recommended that all hogs, lambs, goats, and steers be castrated and healed before the weigh-in date. Animals MUST be castrated & Steers must be Dehorned BEFORE weigh-in.

THE ABOVE-MENTIONED COMMISSIONS OR CHECK-OFFS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

24. Only exhibitors will be permitted in the ring while the Show is in progress. No coaching is to be given from outside the ring as this tends to distract and confuse the exhibitor.

25. During the Show Week, FITTING MUST BE DONE ONLY BY THE EXHIBITOR, FAMILY MEMBER, VOLUNTEER LEADER, OR OTHER BEAVER COUNTY MEMBER OF THE SAME CLUB.
26. Unethical Fitting- Any animal showing any evidence of unethical fitting practices, such as tampering with the natural fleshing and muscle development, and drenching, will be barred from the show.
27. If an animal loses an ear tag or leg band, Club Leaders must be notified immediately. A new tag or leg band must be placed in the animal's ear or leg only by a Leader.
28. Any tampering or any unethical practices related to animals identification will result in disqualification of the animal and member.
29. Exhibitors must not sleep or loiter at night in the buildings or livestock areas on the grounds during the Fair unless given permission by the Club's Board of Directors.
30. Livestock club members are required to participate in club activities (show & sale), including fund-raisers, and to complete their project book. Members who do not participate in club activities and who do not complete their project and record books are not eligible to enroll in the Beaver County Stockman's Club, Inc. the following year. Members must sell a minimum of $75 of ads for the ad book or a $75 fee will be deducted from the member's check.
31. All members must participate in both set up days and must help with clean up after the fair or a $50.00 fee will be deducted from their project check.
32. The Board of Directors of each club reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations and to settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard to or otherwise arising out of or connected with the livestock club.
33. Showmanship: The member MUST show his/her own animal in the showmanship classes. Showman-ship is judged on how well YOU work with YOUR animal. Exceptions, to this rule will be made for market projects members at their club show whose animal didn't make weight or were unable to come to the show.
34. Each member is responsible for feeding, watering and caring for their animal(s) show week until Saturday after the show and they are taken to be processed. Animals must independently consume feed and water. NO FORCE FEEDING IS PERMITTED. All animals must be fed & pens cleaned every day of the fair by 10 am.
35. Animals consigned for slaughter during or immediately following the show shall not receive any treatment with drugs or biologics within the withdrawal time prior to slaughter. Withdrawal times for drugs and biologics are all stated on the directions for use. Label directions must be followed at all times. If upon slaughter, treatment with drugs, biologics, or any chemical from fitting products, is the condemnation of a carcass, loss of the carcass and any other damages will be borne by the exhibitor. No drugs may be administered to animals within thirty (30) days prior to the sale without the approval of a Veterinarian.

36. Stall cards size (11x14) will be used to thank your buyer(s) and/ or supporter(s). Signage at the show will be made in space allotted near the exhibitor's animals.

37. Club Volunteer Leaders will be making species visits for all members. More details concerning species visits will be determined at a later time.

38. When an exhibitor, parent, guardian, leader, coach, or representative acting on behalf of an exhibitor is guilty of unsportsmanlike or unethical conduct, the Board of Directors may require the member to return all trophies and ribbons, and may suspend the member involved from participation in shows or events for such a period as judged appropriate.

A parent, guardian, volunteer leader, coach, or representative acting on behalf of an exhibitor, deemed guilty of unsportsmanlike or unethical conduct may also be prohibited from participation in shows or events for such a period as judged appropriate. Persons deemed guilty of un-sportsmanlike conduct may be expelled from the show grounds at the direction of the Board of Directors.

This rule applies at all times during any event, activity, Show & Sale.

Animal Health Requirements

It is the responsibility of the member(s) and his/her parent(s) or guardian(s) to obtain the COMPLETE health requirements from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

When you purchase an animal, check with the breeder and/or owner to see if any shots vaccinations, etc. have been given to the animal. This will help you maintain and tract your animals health.

DEPARTMENT 9 — RABBITS

RULES & REGULATIONS

1. A pen fee of $2 per head is required with registration. No refunds for no show rabbit exhibits. If an animal to be exhibited becomes sick a refund may be granted if a slip is obtained from a vet.
2. Rabbits must be pre-registered by July 15. Limited space is available. All rabbit entries will be accepted in the order they are received according to their postmark until all pens are filled. Rabbit Health Rules and Requirements

All animals showing clinical signs of contagious, infectious or parasitic diseases will not be admitted to any show or other fair event.

All drug and vaccine labels directions must be followed, including but not limited to milk and slaughter withdrawal periods. The vaccine must be administered at least 15 days prior to entry into the fair.

Pennsylvania Rabbits Requirements:

1. All animals must be free of infectious and contagious diseases.
2. An Animal Owner or Caretaker's Verification of Veterinarian-Client-Patient Relationship (VCPR) statement for the animals being exhibited must be included on the fair registration form.

Out of State Rabbits Requirements:

1. A Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) issued within the 60 days prior to the opening date of the exhibition is required.
2. All animals must be free of infectious and contagious diseases and a statement of this is required on the CVI (the statement is pre-printed on the CVI).
3. Must follow PDA import requirements if coming from a state in which Rabbit Hemorrhagic Disease (RHD) has been diagnosed within the last twelve months and if so will require a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection with specific requirements and statements added. In addition, feed, trailers, forages, tack, or materials associated with known affected rabbits or premises may not enter the commonwealth. This CVI requirement does not apply to rabbits coming from states where RHD has not been diagnosed within the last 12 months.
