

Information and Rules for Food Concessionaires

All persons or organizations wishing to pass out samples shall first obtain space for such activity and having paid customary charge and have been assigned space, shall confine their activities to the space assigned.

Insurance – All exhibitors must provide the fair with a current Certificate of insurance prior to setting up your concession stand. The Certificate of Insurance MUST READ Hookstown Grange #1980 dba Hookstown Fair as the additionally insured. Food Concessionaires must take reasonable care to protect their concession stands from any injury or damage by water, fire, theft, wind, vandalism, maliciousness, or otherwise whatever may be the case or extent of the damage or loss. For this reason, all Food Concessionaires are required to insure their stand.

The fair will assume no responsibility for damage to electrical or other equipment, or for losses because of power outages or equipment failure. You are responsible for protecting your stand and contents during inclement weather. You are responsible for liability caused by your items and booth.

The Hookstown Fair Board reserves the right to choose food concessionaire stand locations in the best interest of the Fair, regardless of past year locations.

Violations of these rules or conduct contrary to the best interest of the fair will not be permitted. Food Concessionaires or others who persist in such violations will be asked to remove their food concession(s) and to leave the Hookstown Fair grounds promptly. No fees or deposits will be refunded in such cases. These rules are set forth for the safety and wellbeing of all fair persons.

By signing this contract, the Food Concessionaire agrees to abide by the rules set forth by the Hookstown Fair Board.

---

Concessionaire Business or Personal Name

---

Authorized Signature

---

Date